GREETINGS

The Officers, Delegates, Members and I extend a Cead Mile Failte to everyone present tonight on the installation of Michael J. Gibbons and his Aides, as the 248th Grand Marshal of the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

I want to pay a special thanks to Tommy Smyth, the outgoing Grand Marshal, for making the 247th St. Patrick's Day Parade an outstanding success. We thank Tommy for the support he has provided our Annual Parade in the media and public life over the years.

I thank all of the Committee for their assistance in making this evening's installation a memorable one. I want to thank you, the Delegates and Members of the St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee, for affording me the opportunity to serve as Chairman of this great Parade. I assure you that I will promote and protect the St. Patrick's Day Parade, preserve the dignity of the day we celebrate, and continue to improve the oldest and largest Parade in the world. It is our responsibility to be ever vigilant to ensure that the St Patrick's Day Parade remains true to our Faith, Heritage and Culture.

Congratulations to our Grand Marshal, Michael J. Gibbons, and his Aides, and many thanks to all of you present here this evening.

May St. Patrick bless you today, tomorrow and for the years to come.

We are all privileged to live in the greatest county in the world, the United States of America: A nation of immigrants and a land of endless opportunity.

May God Bless America.

BENEDICTION

Rev. John McCarthy

2009 GRAND MARSHAL MICHAEL J. GIBBONS

Michael J. Gibbons was raised in the Kingsbridge section of the Bronx. Mike's father hailed from County Mayo in Ireland and his mother was born and raised in Nova Scotia, Canada of Scotch-Irish descent. Mike graduated from St. Francis College in Brooklyn, New York and served in the U.S. Navy.

In 1967, he joined Estée Lauder, Inc., the world's leading manufacturers and marketers of quality cosmetics products. Michael served as Vice President of Clinique and General Manager of Aramis. He retired as an Executive Vice President and General Manager in 2007.

Mr. Gibbons is the former President of The Ireland-U.S. Council, an organization dedicated to promoting business bonds and commercial connections between Ireland and America. During his six years at the helm, the Council's roster of programs and activities has been expanded and its stature has grown on both sides of the Atlantic. The Council operates a variety of scholarship and internship programs, stages seminars and hosts frequent events in Ireland and in the United States.

He is currently a Director of Flax Trust America, a Member of the Mayo Society of New York and a Director of The Irish Institute. He is also a Member of The Taoiseach's Economic Advisory Board in the United States. Mr. Gibbons is a former Chairman of the International Center in New York, a private, not-for-profit organization that welcomes and assists immigrants and refugees to America. He is a past-Director of the American Ireland Fund, the Eugene O'Neill Theater Foundation and the former co-chairman of the Knights of St. Patrick.
